

I'VE WORN MY BITS O' SHOON AWAY,

LANCASHIRE SONG,

BY

EDWIN WAUGH.

AUTHOR OF "SWEETHEART GATE" "YESTERNEET" "WHAT AILS THEE MY SON ROBIN" &c &c.

SET TO A

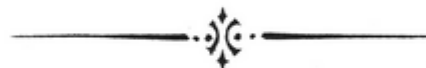

TRADITIONAL AIR,

HARMONIES & ACCOMPANIMENTS

BY

E. DE JONG.

ENT. STA. HALL.

PRICE 4/-

Manchester.

R. COWLEY SQUIER,

24, CROSS STREET,

& ALL MUSIC SELLERS IN LANCASHIRE & YORKSHIRE.

I'VE WORN MY BITS O' SHOON AWAY.

Poetry by EDWIN WAUGH.

PIANO.

I've worn my bits o' shoon a-way, Wi'

ro - vin' up an' down, To see yon moor - lan' val - leys an' Yon lit - tle coun - try..... town. The deuce tak shoon an' stock-in's too My heart feels hutch-in'

fain; An' if I trudge it..... bar-foot, lads, I'll see yon town a-gain.

It's

I'VE WORN MY BITS O' SHOON AWAY.

what care I for ci - ties grand, We nev - er shall a - gree; I'd ray - ther live where th'layrock sings, A coun - try town for.....

me; A coun - try town, where one can meet Wi'

friends, an' neigh - bours known; Where one can lounge i'th

mar - - ket-place, An' see the mea - dows mown.

Yon

moor-lan' hills are bloom - in' wild, At th'endin' o' Ju - ly; Yon wood - lan' cloofs, an' val - leys green, The sweet - est un - der sky; Yon dain - ty rind - les, dan - ein' down, Fro

th'moun - tains in - to th'plain, - As soon as th'new moon

ri - ses, lads, I'm off to th'moors a - gain!

There's

heart - y lads a - mung yon hills, An' in yon country town; They'n far moor wit than proud - er folk, - I'll peawnd it for a.....

crown; They're wick an' warm, at wark an' fun, Where - ev - - er they may go;..... The pri - mest breed o'.....

I'VE WORN MY BITS O'SHOON AWAY.

lads i'th world, _ Good luck at _ tend 'em o!

Last

neet I laft the ci - ty thrung, An' climb'd yon hil - lock green; An' turn'd my face to th'moor_lan' hills, Wi' th'way - ter in my.....

e'en; Wi' th'way - ter wel - lin' i' my e'en, I'll bun - dle up, an'..... go,..... An' live an' dee i' my own coun - trie, Where moor - lan' bree - zes blow!