

"COME WHOAM TO THI' CHILDER AN' ME."

WORDS BY
E. WAUGH.

MUSIC BY
C. E. ROWLEY.

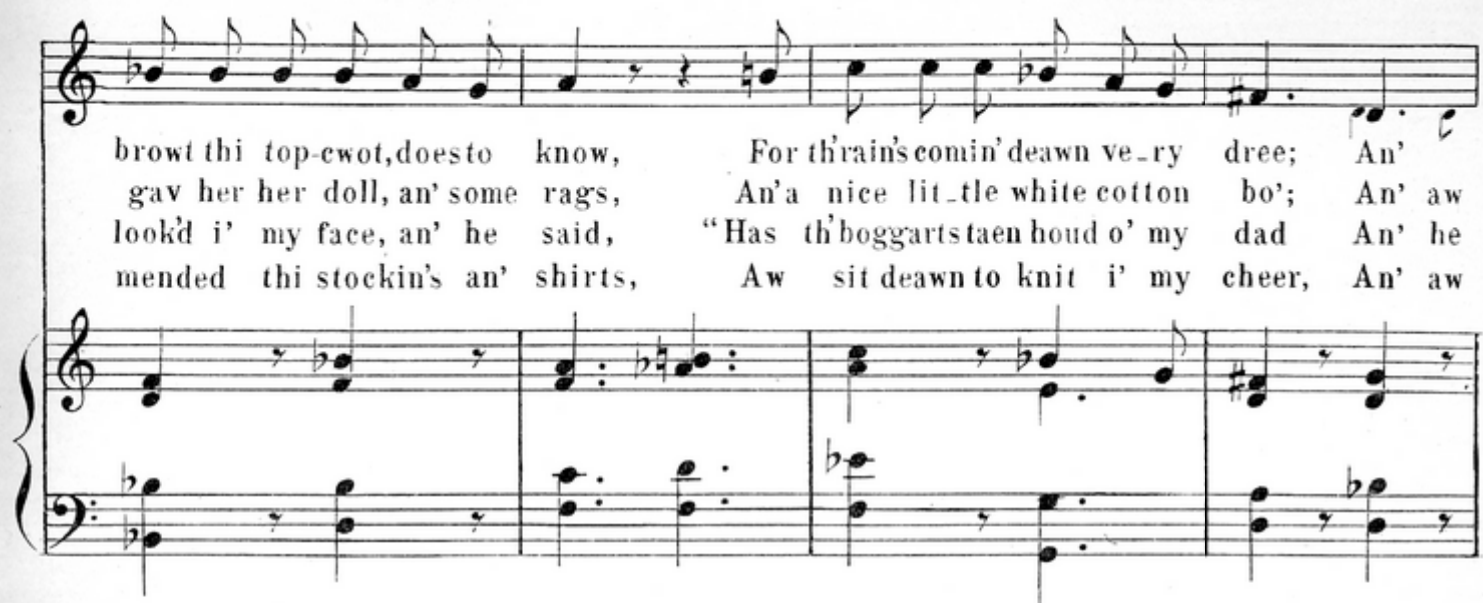

VOICE.

PIANO.

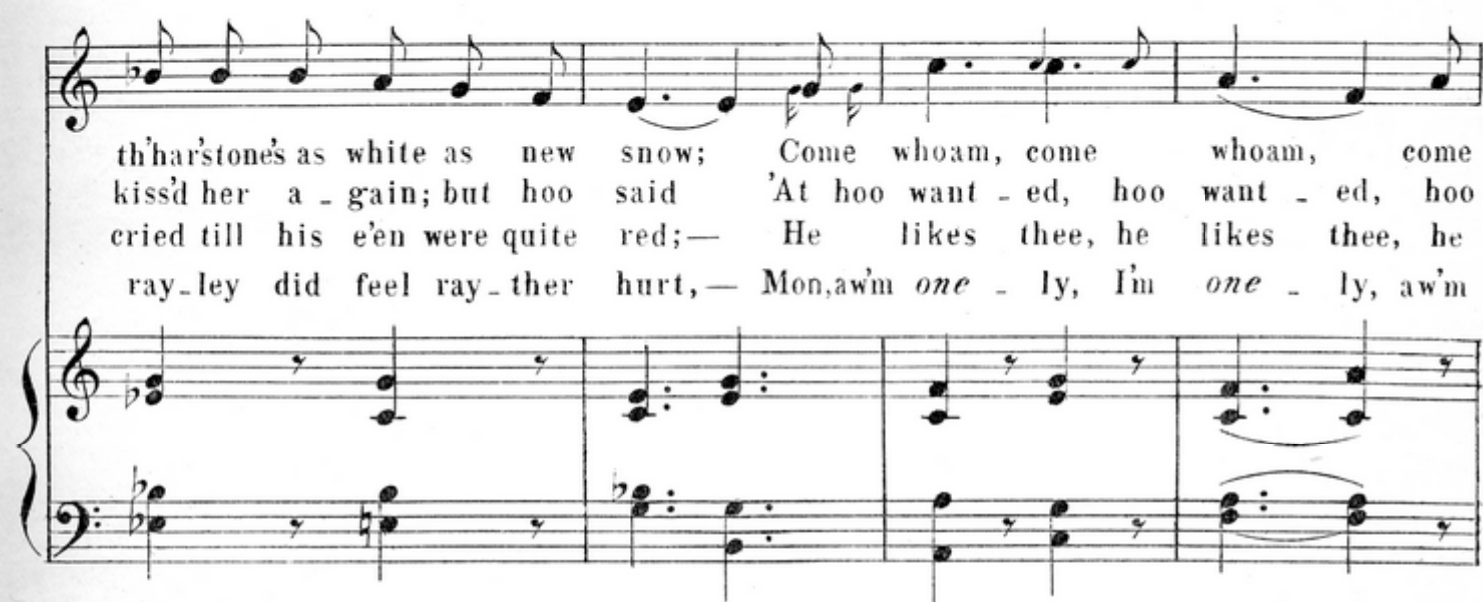

1. Aw've just mended th' fire wi' a
2. When aw put lit-tle Sally to
3. An' Dick, too, aw'd sich wark wi'
4. At th' lung-length, aw geet 'em laid cob, Owd Swaddle has browt thi new shoon, There's some bed, Hoo cried, 'cose her fey-ther weren't theer, So aw him, A - fore aw could get him up stairs; Thae still, An' aw hearken't folks' feet 'at went by; So aw nice ba-con col-lops o'th hob, An' a quart o' ale posset ith oon, Aw've kiss'd th' little thing, an' aw said Tha'd bring her a ribbin fro'th fair; An' aw towd him tha'd bring him a drum, He said, when he're sayin' his prayers Then he iron't o' my clooas reet well, An' aw hang'd 'em o'th maiden to dry; When aw'd browt thi top-ewot, doesto know, For th'rain's comin' deawn ve-ry dree; An' gav her her doll, an' some rags, An' a nice lit-tle white cotton bo'; An' aw look'd i' my face, an' he said, "Has th'boggarts taen houd o' my dad An' he mended thi stockin's an' shirts, Aw sit deawn to knit i' my cheer, An' aw th'har'stone's as white as new snow; Come whoam, come whoam, come kissd her a - gain; but hoo said 'At hoo want - ed, hoo want - ed, hoo cried till his e'en were quite red;— He likes thee, he likes thee, he ray-ley did feel ray-ther hurt,— Mon, aw'm one - ly, I'm one - ly, aw'm whoam to the chil-der an' me.

 want - ed to kiss thee an' o'.
 likes thee some weel, does yon lad.
one - ly when theaw art - nt theer.

D.C.

§

5. 'Aw've a drum an' a trumpet for Dick; 'Aw've a yard o' blue
 6. "God bless tho', my lass; aw'll go whoam, An' aw'll kiss thee an' th' rib - bin for Sal; 'Aw've a book full o' babs, an' a chil - der o' round; Thae knows, that wher - ev - er aw stick An' some 'bae - co an' pipes for my - sel', roam, Aw'm fain to get back to th'owd ground;

'Aw've browt thee some cof - fee an' tay, — Iv thae'll Aw can do wi' a crack o'er a glass; Aw can feel i' my poc - ket, thae'll see; An' aw've do wi' a bit of a spree; But aw've bowt tho a new cap to - - day, — But aw al' - ays bring no grade - ly com - fort, my lass, Ex - - cept wi' yon sum - mat for thee. Aw al' - - ays bring chil - der an' thee." Ex - cept wi' yon summat for thee.

chil - der an' thee.

D.C